Question 1

Bukit (M) Sdn Bhd ("Bukit") was the sub-contractor in the Tegap JT Mall project, a project to construct a 15-storey shopping mall and business complex in Pusat Bandar Dynamic, Kuala Lumpur ("Project"). Their claim was to recover monies due and owed to them for works done in the Project.

The Project was initially awarded by the Project owner to Berkat Asli Holdings Berhad ("Berkat Asli"). Berkat Asli then sub-contracted the works to Merlin Sdn Bhd ("Merlin") and it was subsequently subcontracted to Hjau Rimbun Sdn Bhd ("Hjau Rimbun"). John Tam was the majority shareholder of both Hjau Rimbun and Merlin Sdn Bhd.

When Bukit was first offered to be a sub-contractor in the Project by Hjau Rimbun, relevant searches was conducted on Hjau Rimbun which revealed that the company was newly incorporated and had no track record in doing the relevant works. As such, Bukit decided against accepting the Project.

However, John Tam later convinced and assured Bukit that he knew the major shareholder of Berkat Asli, Tan Sri Kee ("TSK"), and represented that TSK had a vested interest in Hjau Rimbun. It was on this representation that Bukit agreed to execute the agreement and was made sub-contractor to Hijau Rimbun.

Sometime during the subsistence of the Project, Bukit stopped receiving progressive payments for their work. Upon further inquiry, it was discovered that in the contract between Merlin Sdn Bhd and Berkat Asli, it was stated amongst other, that Merlin Sdn Bhd would not be paid for the works carried out by Bukit. Hence, Merlin Sdn Bhd was unable to pay Hjau Rimbun for the works and in turn, the payment was not made to Bukit. This was clearly a breach of the agreement between Bukit and Hjau Rimbun.

Bukit wants to file claims against the relevant parties. Advise Bukit

Question 2

Joe is the owner of Sewing Sisters Sdn Bhd. A colleague, Nana, has made a complaint to Joe that she had been sexually harassed by his supervisor – Norman, in the office gym. As the owner of Sewing Sisters Sdn Bhd, Joe viewed this as a serious misconduct, and Joe immediately reported this matter to the Human Resource Manager recommending for Norman to be dismissed immediately. Before the incident, Nana had sold five sewing machines to Puan Tan for her sewing club. Puan Tan entered into a 15-month instalment agreement with Sewing Sisters Sdn Bhd. However, when Puan Tan brought the sewing machine to her sewing club, three out of five sewing machines were not sewing the pieces of clothes together. The sewing machine merely made holes in the cloth. Meanwhile, Joe was feeling agitated when Makcik Jahit Sdn Bhd set up a business selling sewing supplies three doors away from his store. Joe engaged Oppa Gangnam to sabotage the store by setting it on fire. Joe promised Oppa Gangnam some amount of money after the job was done. Unfortunately, Oppa Gangham was caught in action by the nightguard. Makcik Jahit Sdn Bhd later successfully sued Oppa Gangnam for RM200,000.00. Oppa Gangnam paid the amount and now he wants to recover the amount paid to Makcik Jahit Sdn Bhd from Joe as well as all his legal expenses incurred during the trial.

Advice Norman, Puan Tan and Oppa Gangnam.
